PTE | PEARSON TEST OF ENGLISH
General

Key features of PTE General:

- Realistic themes, authentic sources and tasks
 - The item types in each PTE General test are grouped together around topics referred to as themes. At Level 4 and Level 5, the theme tends to be quite abstract, such as global issues like pollution and conservation.
 - The written component of the test contains three themes and the spoken part two.
 - Most of the texts used to assess reading and listening, particularly at levels 3-5, are authentic. Hence PTE General is a measure of real, practical English.
- Integrated skills
 - PTE General incorporates integrated skills.

Level 4 (Advanced) and Level 5 (Proficient)

The overall timing for the written test at Level 4 is 2 hours and 30 minutes and at Level 5 – 2 hours and 55 minutes.

The written paper is divided into nine sections which are linked to a theme.

Sections	Skills	Score points
1	Listening	10
2	Listening and writing	5 listening, 5 writing
3	Listening	10
4-7	Reading	25
8-9	Writing	20

Listening

Section	Skills	Item types	Objectives	Stimulus
1	Listening	3-option multiple choice	To assess ability to understand the main detail in short spoken utterances	Short authentic recordings, one or two speakers
2	Listening & writing	Dictation	To assess ability to understand an extended utterance by transcribing a spoken text	Simulated authentic extracts containing relatively formal language: instructions, news bulletins, announcements, broadcast features and factual information.
3	Listening	Note completion	To assess ability to extract specific information from extended spoken texts	Authentic recordings of one or two speakers giving or exchanging information.

Which level – B2, B2+, C1, C2?

Can understand with ease virtually any kind of spoken language, whether live or broadcast, delivered at fast natural speed.

Can understand enough to follow extended speech on abstract and complex topics beyond his/her own field, though he/she may need to confirm occasional details, especially if the accent is unfamiliar.

Can recognise a wide range of idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms, appreciating register shifts.

Can follow extended speech even when it is not clearly structured and when relationships are only implied and not signalled explicitly.

Can understand standard spoken language, live or broadcast on both familiar and unfamiliar topics normally encountered in personal, social, academic or vocational life. Only extreme background noise, inadequate discourse structure and/or idiomatic usage influence the ability to understand.

Can understand the main ideas of propositionally and linguistically complex speech on both concrete and abstract topics delivered in standard speech, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialisation.

Can follow extended speech and complex lines of argument provided the topic is reasonably familiar, and the direction of the talk is sign-posted by explicit markers.

Some tips

Listen to authentic audio and video texts – accents!

Develop the skill of guessing what words mean based on context.

Try to predict answers before you listen. Read the question, underline the key words, and then think what is the most likely answer. Predicting the answer helps you 'tune in' to the recording.

One of the best ways to improve your test-taking skills is to read the transcript of the recording after you have listened to it.

Using podcasts

Find a podcast that interests you and is not too difficult.

Make listening to a podcast part of your everyday routine.

Make time in your schedule for it.

Listen to a podcast when you are out and about so that you are not tempted to consult the transcript.

Summarise what you hear and identify key points and key vocabulary.

Occasionally, study a podcast more thoroughly. Read the transcript to check your understanding and to identify new vocabulary.

Get more advice on how to use podcasts from 7 British English Podcasts to Improve your Advanced English

Podcasts to listen to

Two podcasts featuring ordinary people and everyday topics:

The Listening Project – a partnership between BBC Radio 4, BBC local and national radio stations, and the British Library started in 2012; a collection of intimate conversations between friends or relatives.

StoryCorps – the American project that was the inspiration for The Listening Project.

Two more podcasts from the BBC:

Bookclub – led by James Naughtie, a group of readers talk to acclaimed authors about their best-known novels

Kermode and Mayo's Film Review – Mark Kermode joins Simon Mayo to give his verdict on the week's movies

Ready-made materials to use

Listening tasks with activities or complete lesson plans:

Listening - Advanced C1 from the British Council LearnEnglish

Advanced C1 listening from Learn English Teens by the British Council

EF Class – a fully interactive free classroom application that comes with hundreds of hours of modifiable lesson materials

A new lesson is added every week during term time, exploring the latest news, events, and trends.

There is, among other things, a Listening Diagnostic Test which Contains Advanced – Estonian edition, consisting of 6 units (21 lessons) at level C1 based on the Estonian National Curriculum for Upper-Secondary Schools.
